

Joshua Week 1 chapters 1-3

Pre-Joshua references to Joshua

Exodus 17: 8 - 10

1st time we hear of Joshua he is fighting Israel's battle

Exodus 17: 12 - 14

Exodus 24: 12 - 14

Joshua was a witness of God giving Moses the tablets of the law

Exodus 32: 16 - 18

Numbers 11: 27 - 29

Joshua stood up for Moses' honor

Exodus 33: 10 - 11

Joshua was a man of prayer

Numbers 13: 16

Numbers 14: 29 -31

Joshua is rewarded for his faithfulness

Numbers 26: 64 - 65

Deuteronomy 1:12 - 23

Deuteronomy 1: 37 - 39

Joshua is chosen as the successor of Moses

Deuteronomy 3: 27 - 29

Moses prophesies to Joshua

Deuteronomy 31: 6 - 8

Joshua is commissioned to lead Israel in Moses' absence

Deuteronomy 31: 14

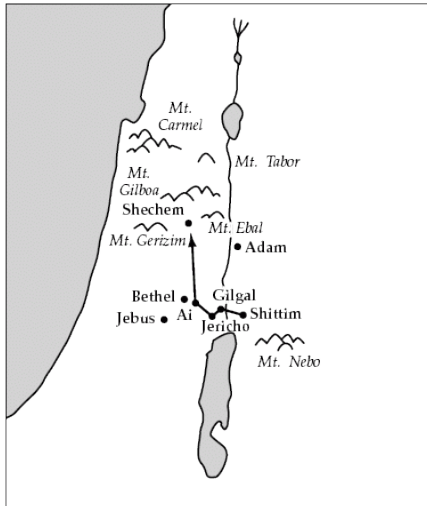

Joshua is equipped to lead Israel and Israel recognizes him as their leader.

Deuteronomy 34: 8 - 10

Joshua 1

The LORD Commands Joshua

Joshua 1:1 - 5

Joshua 1: 6 - 18

Joshua 2:1 - 24

Rahab and the Spies

Joshua 3:1 - 17

Crossing the Jordan

Similarities between Joshua and Jesus

•The Hebrew word for both Joshua and Jesus are the _____ :

(Hebrew: יְהוֹשֻׁעַ Yehoshua;

Greek: Ἰησοῦς, same as Jesus

•When Moses could not _____ the people into Canaan, Joshua did it;

Jesus _____ what the law never could have done.

•Joshua _____ the enemies of God's people: though they were very many and very strong, and bad cities walled to heaven and chariots of iron, yet in the name of _____, as captain of the Lord's host, Joshua _____ them.

Jesus _____ our sins and all the powers of darkness, and utterly _____ our spiritual enemies.

•Moreover Joshua _____ an _____ for Israel, took them across the Jordan, _____ them in a land that flowed with milk and honey, and gave to each tribe and to each man to stand in his lot which God had ordained for him.

Precisely this is what our Jesus does, only our _____ is more divine, and on each one of us it is more surely entailed.

•Though Joshua could not give to the people the heavenly _____, or _____ of the highest kind, yet he gave them rest most pleasant to them, so that every man sat under his own vine and fig tree.

Jesus has given us _____, _____, for he is our _____, and they that know him have entered into _____.

•Joshua, the son of Nun, caused the people to _____ the Lord all his days, but he could not _____ the nation from their _____, for after his death they grievously went astray.

Jesus reserved to himself a people who are in _____ with God because of His obedience and are _____ "once and for all".